

Eastern Illinois University

The Keep

1989

Press Releases

10-31-1989

10/31/1989 - Panthers In Marching

University Marketing and Communications

Follow this and additional works at: https://thekeep.eiu.edu/press_releases_1989

Recommended Citation

University Marketing and Communications, "10/31/1989 - Panthers In Marching" (1989). 1989. 691.
https://thekeep.eiu.edu/press_releases_1989/691

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Press Releases at The Keep. It has been accepted for inclusion in 1989 by an authorized administrator of The Keep. For more information, please contact tabruns@eiu.edu.

File Trans.

88 6 72

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 31 1989

STUDENTS WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Cathy Woodall, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woodall of Shelbyville, is a senior Music Education major who plays the trumpet.

Nancy Miller, parents Mr. and Mrs. George Flesher also live in Shelbyville, is a sophomore Music Education major and plays the french horn.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

✓

OCT 31 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENTS WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Three area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Bridget Riddell, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Riddell live in Peoria, is a freshman Marketing major who plays trombone.

Catherine Rogers, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rogers live in Yates City, is a freshman Accounting major who plays trumpet.

Marci Boyer, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Gary Boyer live in Hanna City, is a sophomore and plays the clarinet.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 31 1989

STUDENTS WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Laura Winter, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Les Winter of O'Fallon, is a sophomore Elementary Education major who plays the french horn.

Camela Williams, parents Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams also live in O'Fallon, is a freshman Biology major and plays the clarinet.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 31 1989

STUDENTS WITH THE "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Charisse Wascher, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wascher live in Lyons, is a sophomore and plays the flute.

Bob Murray, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray live in Countryside, is a fresman Music Education major who plays the trumpet.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 31 1989

STUDENTS WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Sharon Hannemann, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hannemann of Palatine, is a freshman Music Education and Music Performance major and plays the clarinet.

Tina Roemer, parents Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Roemer also live in Palatine, is a freshman Home Economics major and is with the flag corps.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 31 1989

STUDENTS WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Susan Rehmer, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rehmer of Algonquin, is a senior Accounting major and plays the trumpet.

Michelle Field, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dana Field of Crystal Lake, is a freshman and also plays the trumpet.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENTS WITH THE "MARCHING PANTHERS"

OCT 31 1989

CHARLESTON, IL--Three area students are proud members of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band.

Christopher Norman, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Norman of Alton, is a sophomore Music Education major who plays trumpet.

Michael Gagliardo, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gagliardo also live in Alton, is a sophomore Music Education major and also plays the trumpet.

Rachel Cella, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cella live in Godfrey, is a freshman English major who plays clarinet.

There are 153 Eastern Illinois students who will participate in a week to march rehearsal to bring music and sports to the campus as well as other sporting events.

Director Tom Brawner said he will bring entertainment and excitement to the campus.

Brawner said Eastern's football game instead of a football game is the pride of the school.

"This takes a great deal of effort and we have a great deal of pride in it."

-more-

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
Charleston, Illinois

news

ART TATE, Assistant Director, University Relations
Office: (217) 581-5983 - Home: (217) 348-7553

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 26 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Jayme Barnard, whose father Mr. Michael G. Barnard lives in Hinsdale, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Music Major plays the alto sax for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 26 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Elizabeth Bledsoe, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bledsoe live in Springfield, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The sophomore Mathematics major plays the flute for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

✓

OCT 26 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Darlene Bollmeier, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Bollmeier live in Marissa, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Accounting major plays the clarinet for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 20 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Steve Bowman, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bowman live in Carlyle, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Pre-Business major plays the alto sax for the band.

Bowman is a pledge for Kappa Kappa Psi, an honorary band fraternity.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

DM ✓
OCT 26 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Leighanne Brinkley, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Terry Brinkley live in Olney, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The junior Accounting major plays the trumpet for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 20 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Susan Brock, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Brock live in Dewey, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The senior English major plays the clarinet for the band.

Brock is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, an honorary English Fraternity. She was also on the Dean's List.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 20 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Debby Buis, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. John Buis live in Bloomington, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. Buis is a freshman and plays the flute for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 26 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Steve Bunck, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bunck of Florissant, Missouri, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The sophomore Music Performance major plays percussion-snare for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 26 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Christopher Burney, whose mother is Betty Burney of Chicago, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Music Education major plays percussion-bass for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
Charleston, Illinois

news

ART TATE, Assistant Director, University Relations
Office: (217) 581-5983 - Home: (217) 348-7553

OCT 26 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Neil Charlet, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Charlet live in Kewanee, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Music Education major plays the trumpet for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 20 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Andy Clem, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clem live in Momence, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Zoology major plays the trombone for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 20 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Paula Cooper, whose mother Mrs. Pat Cooper lives in Flora, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The senior Elementary Education major plays the alto sax for the band.

Cooper is a member of Tau Beta Sigma, an honorary band sorority.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 26 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Stephanie Cooper, whose father Mr. Wayne Cooper lives in Mascoutah, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The freshman Special Education major plays the flute for the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OCT 26 1989

AREA STUDENT WITH "MARCHING PANTHERS"

CHARLESTON, IL--Stacey Copenhaver, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Bob Copenhaver live in Naperville, is a proud member of Eastern Illinois University's Panther Marching Band. The sophomore Elementary Education major is with the flag corps in the band.

There are 153 Eastern Students who devote five hours a week to march rehearsal and two hours a week to music rehearsal to bring music and spirit to Eastern's football games, as well as other sporting events and campus activities. Band Director Tom Brawner said he is proud of their hard work to bring entertainment and excitement to Eastern.

Brawner said Eastern's band performs a different half-time show every football game instead of the same show every week. "This takes a great deal of effort, but results in a show that we have a great deal of pride in."

-more-